

What is FCSS?

Family and Community Support Services is:

A partnership between the province, municipalities and Metis Settlements and derives its mandate on a provincial level from the family and Community Support Services Act and Regulation.

The Program fosters a philosophy under which:

- * Citizen participation, self-help and volunteerism are encouraged
- * Communities can be innovative and creative
- * Human growth and potential are enhanced
- * Local people can influence things that affect them

Town of Slave Lake FCSS:

Strives to develop locally driven preventive social initiatives to enhance the well-being of individuals, families and community. We do this by offering a combination of organized programs and services, as well as, providing grants to eligible groups to become FCSS funded agencies.

What is our Vision?

As stated in the FCSS Handbook:

“ Alberta’s diverse people building strong communities through positive, caring interaction and mutual respect.”

What is our Mission Statement?

Family and Community Support Services (FCSS) is a partnership between the Province, municipalities and Métis Settlements that develops locally driven preventive social initiatives to enhance the well-being of individuals, families, and communities.
